

Master Your Finances

online-friendly class by ESLhome.es

Introduction: Are you a master of your finances?

Read these statements and see how many of them you agree with (and where you can improve).

I always set aside a portion of my income for a rainy day.

Introduction: Are you a master of your finances?

Read these statements and see how many of them you agree with (and where you can improve).

I try not to splash out right after payday.

Introduction: Are you a master of your finances?

Read these statements and see how many of them you agree with (and where you can improve).

I never spend more than I earn.

Introduction: Are you a master of your finances?

Read these statements and see how many of them you agree with (and where you can improve).

I always read the fine print of financial products and services.

Introduction: Are you a master of your finances?

Read these statements and see how many of them you agree with (and where you can improve).

I regularly check my bank statements to track my expenses.

Introduction: Are you a master of your finances?

Read these statements and see how many of them you agree with (and where you can improve).

I enjoy finding new and creative ways to save money.

Grammar & Speaking:

Add the missing prepositions to the questions.
Then, discuss your answers as a group.

in

on

for

from

1. What do you spend too much money _____?

Grammar & Speaking:

Add the missing prepositions to the questions.
Then, discuss your answers as a group.

in

on

for

from

2. What would you like to save up _____?

Grammar & Speaking:

Add the missing prepositions to the questions.
Then, discuss your answers as a group.

in

on

for

from

3. What do you love to splash out _____?

Grammar & Speaking:

Add the missing prepositions to the questions.
Then, discuss your answers as a group.

in

on

for

from

4. Who would you never borrow money _____?

Grammar & Speaking:

Add the missing prepositions to the questions.
Then, discuss your answers as a group.

in

on

for

from

5. What is one thing that you overspent _____?

Grammar & Speaking:

Add the missing prepositions to the questions.
Then, discuss your answers as a group.

in

on

for

from

6. What would you never cut down _____?

Grammar & Speaking:

Add the missing prepositions to the questions.
Then, discuss your answers as a group.

in

on

for

from

7. What could you save a little money _____?

Grammar & Speaking:

Add the missing prepositions to the questions.
Then, discuss your answers as a group.

in

on

for

from

8. What do people waste money _____?

Grammar & Speaking:

Add the missing prepositions to the questions.
Then, discuss your answers as a group.

in

on

for

from

9. What should you never invest _____?

Grammar & Speaking:

Add the missing prepositions to the questions.
Then, discuss your answers as a group.

in

on

for

from

10. What would you like to raise money _____?

Grammar & Speaking:

Add the missing prepositions to the questions.
Then, discuss your answers as a group.

in

on

for

from

11. Who is it OK to steal money _____?

Grammar & Speaking:

Add the missing prepositions to the questions.
Then, discuss your answers as a group.

in

on

for

from

12. What should you never skimp _____?

Speaking II: Discuss ways to save money on the following things:

food and drink

keeping fit

transportation

technology

Native Phrases:

Read the sentences. Can you guess the meaning of the underlined phrases from context?

1. Hey, put your wallet away. Dinner's on me tonight.
2. Calling all customers! Drinks are on the house for the next hour.
3. He wanted £50 for the dress, but I haggled him down to £40.
4. This is a disaster. We're just pouring money down the drain.
5. Don't get a job at that place. They pay peanuts!
6. He says he's broke, but I think he's been squirreling money away and not telling anyone.

Master Your Finances

Check out the printable version of this worksheet and additional exercises at ESLhome.es

